

Gerristown / Royston Action Committee

PRESS RELEASE

Marie Cunningham of Royston Road has been in dispute with Glasgow District Council's housing authorities for two years. It began when she set out to buy the council house she has rented for the past 30 years. At the time this seemed a formality. But it wasn't a formality. The trouble now began. Included in the agreement was the garden-idea Marie has had for that same 30 years. Suddenly her upstairs neighbour of 5½ years decided that she wanted to claim the garden-idea. For Marie Cunningham this is when the nightmare began.

The neighbour who disputes Marie Cunningham's rights to the land happens to be the daughter of Josephine Bradley. And for anyone who lives in the area that should be enough said. 'Queen' Josephine Bradley, 'staunch' Labour Party member, is election agent for both MP Michael Martin and local councillor Baillie James McLennan. For some years 'Queen' Josephine has held 'court' in the Gerristown/Royston district. She is or has been on many different committees. At present she runs the Gerristown Community Centre as if it was an extension of her home, or some kind of private club. Recently she was given a minibus from the council - we say 'she was given' and not the 'community was given' because this minibus operates as a private mini cab service.

Some of the harassment received by Marie Cunningham has been nothing short of vicious. It comes from all directions, including Glasgow District Council's Housing Department at Charles Street, run by manageress Irene Spence. Needless to say one of Ms Spence's 'underlings' by the purest coincidence just happens to be 'Queen' Josephine's son and therefore the brother of the neighbour who wants to hijack the garden-idea. His name is Patrick Bradley and being a very 'brave' chap he too has entered the fray. At one point when this GLC Housing Official was drunk he wanted to challenge a friend of Marie Cunningham's to a boxing match. Then when he discovered Marie was alone downstairs he started jumping up and down heavily on his sister's floor, i.e. Marie's ceiling. It should be said that Marie is not in the best of health, having recently undergone radiotherapy treatment. But that doesn't stop the Bradley gang.

This is not the place to enter the full details of the dispute. There are two sides to every argument. The fact that Marie Cunningham's family has been using the garden-area for 30 years makes the case as far as her civil rights are concerned.

When a friend telephoned MP Michael Martin to seek his advice on the matter he actually put the phone down while they were talking to him. That was when he discovered his election agent and the rest of the Bradley family were involved. And as for Councillor James McLean, if you live in the district it's enough said again. The story is the same once you reach the upper echelons of GLC's Housing Management. The part played by Irene Spence, manageress at the Charles St. ~~office~~ ^{office}, is nothing short of disgraceful. But ask the Garniston/royston council tenants about Ms Spence.

The petty victimisation from the housing authorities and local Labour politicians ~~worries~~ ^{Marie's} her friends and supporters just as much as the horrible bullying from the Bradley family (whose power base is not confined to this district; one of Josephine's son-in-laws holds 'court' in Mossburn).

Certain officials within George Square seem embarrassed by the affair. They know the rights Marie has to the purchase of her home and garden-area but their 'hands are tied'. Apparently the rules about garden-area allocation have now been changed in the Garniston/Roston district, making it different from the rest of Glasgow.

Council house tenants and those who want to buy their own homes are entitled to ask questions. They're also entitled to know why Josephine Bradley has all this power and influence with

Let our Party politicians, and why she has the same power and influence at the very highest levels of GLC's Housing Management. Is it just because she is an election agent for the politicians mentioned? Or is it that and something else...? A few people with longer memories have their own ideas on the subject. And part of that concerns private property development with a certain ex-millionaire who discredited himself and the Labour Group across in Renfrew.

But that's another story.

Some of the other tenants in Royston have tried to fight 'the system' here before but were 'warned off'. Some of them were members of the Labour Party. Some of this committee are also members of the Labour Party who are sick to the teeth with petty corruption. But we're not going to be warned off. It's unfortunate but true that because of this we prefer not to list our names and addresses. We shall be having more public meetings and if through 'Queen' Josephine influence we aren't granted a council 'let' then that will provide the number one topic on the agenda, we will hold the meeting on the street outside her house and make sure the media attends. And if 'Queen' Josephine's adviser to the 'court', MP Michael Martin, wants to charge us £250 millions for the one-night 'let' then the same thing applies, we'll hold the meeting outside his surgery office - we can't do it outside his house because he's flitting to London. We're sick of this kind of corruption. We also want to point out that we're not a group of anti-poll tax protestors. Marie Cunningham has lived a nightmare for two years, a woman undergoing radiotherapy treatment. She is at her wits' end. This victimisation and corruption must stop. The Gerdiston/Roston Action Committee will make sure it does. But as we said, things are so bad in this district that we cannot put our contact number down in case of reprisals. But if anything happens to Marie Cunningham there will be a lot of angry people around.

Members advised that the 'Germiston Chiller' was chiming after midnight on Saturday night. Inspector Ruddock advised that in order to charge the owner at least two people have to hear the chimes and then go to court to bear witness to it or the police have to hear it. He gave his assurance that when he was on night shift he would pay particular attention to it. He added that if it happens continually their Street Traders Licence can be revoked.

Dear Beatrice

GERMISTON AREA LIAISON COMMITTEE MEETING, TUESDAY 21 MAY 1991

I refer to your letter inviting a police representative to attend the meeting at 7pm at Germiston Community Hall, Forge Street, Glasgow, at which Inspector William Ruddock of this Division attended.

Inspector Ruddock informs me that there was some discussion about the group disorders which had given rise for some concern and he was able to assure the meeting that the area was much quieter than previously, which was the general consensus of the audience.

Inspector Ruddock informs me that the issue of Ice Cream Vehicles sounding their chimes outwith permitted hours was raised and I have to inform you that for some time now police officers have been warning the owner/drivers of Ice Cream Vans trading in the Germiston area and in fact Inspector Ruddock on leaving the meeting of 21 May 1991, heard a driver of an Ice Cream Van sound the chimes and Inspector Ruddock stopped him and advised him to cease.

In relation to parking at Sieman Street and Royston Road, I have advised Traffic (North) Group to have a look at the problem and after they conclude their enquiries I will contact you.

Thank you for your kind invitation to attend the meeting and I look forward to continuing liaison with the Committee.

Yours sincerely,

John F. Aining

3. Urban Aid Applications 1992/1993

Councillor Fleming presented the application for Germiston Community Hall extension and brick cladding. The architects drawing indicated the area of land available to the rear of the present hall which would be fully utilised to build a general purpose hall, and the present building would need some internal conversion as well as a new roof. The cost would be in the region of £227,000 plus fees. He hopes that much of the work could be done without closing the hall.

The group fully supported the application and Councillor Fleming will produce the final draft before the closing date and provide GALC with copies.

4. GGHB, Community Strategy

Gavin Grimson, Robert Miller and Margaret McElroy of GGHB attended to make a presentation on the Consultation document regarding Community Health and answer any questions the group members may have. Comments regarding the Strategy should be sent before 1 November 1991 to GGHB.

The presentation covered the summary circulated to group members (see attached) including child health, nursing services, chiropody, physiotherapy, speech therapy and premises.

GGHB have identified that an increasing number of people prefer to attend their GP for most services and project this may amount to 80% by 1993. In line with this projection the Strategy details a framework for GP's to work in partnership with GGHB to provide an efficient, well managed and economical health service. Mr Grimson explained that the aim is to run existing resources better, avoiding duplication of services and using skilled and unskilled staff more effectively. It is also intended to provide a new health centre for Drumchapel and to close 29 clinics identified as being inadequate either in building condition or level of use. These services would be redirected.

Councillor Fleming queried if the GGHB had the funding required to provide this level of service, and how the areas of greatest need can be identified.

Robert Miller explained that the Health Board would contract with Units to provide the services and therefore it would be the responsibility of that Unit to effectively manage their resources in order to provide that service. The areas of greatest need can be identified through statistics already available from case records etc. Factors included are - resident population; morbidity rates; frequency of illness and hospitalisation. The professionals in each area will be able to target the specific areas based on the information available and their priorities. In addition GP's must register the number of children they intend to provide child health services for. Any percentage not taken up by GP's will be provided for by the Community Health Service.

Josie Bradley complained strongly regarding the distinct lack of local services for Germiston area which has a high level of elderly people and children, especially the lack of premises and adequate chiropody services.

Gavin Grimson said he would arrange for a representative involved in chiropody to attend a meeting of the ALC to discuss this. Robert Miller added that Sector Chiropodists had been appointed recently in order to manage staff and increase the number of sessions provided. The intention is to provide 240,000 sessions by 1993 as opposed to the current level of 197,000 i.e. an increase of 43,000 treatments.

Beatrice Ullah highlighted the lack of a dental service for the area and the travelling difficulties associated with Germiston. Councillor Fleming expressed his concern that there may be unidentified areas of need which will upset the balance of finance and resources as proposed in the Strategy.

The communication links between the nursing service and Social Work Department regarding the identification of possible child neglect. Margaret McElroy explained that premature babies and babies born within a home located in an area of 'deprivation' would receive additional visits. In addition, children deemed to be 'at risk', as determined by the professional, will receive whatever level of service they require.

The group also expressed concern regarding the high level of drug and alcohol abuse amongst mothers in the area and if discovered by a GP would this information be passed to Social Work Department. Margaret explained that this would be an infringement of patient-doctor confidentiality. The GGHB propose to target health promotion and education through schools etc. in order to encourage children to avoid either drugs or alcohol.

Councillor Fleming thanked Gavin, Robert and Margaret for their presentation and brought the meeting to a close.

6. Date of Next Meeting
